E. M. Yeomans of Andover. The posting of signs was simply to guard against unnecessary pollution of the water, which is and has been used for a great many years as a supply by a considerable number of citizens of the town of Coventry. The question was agitated last winter to some degree, but it got so late that no action was taken to prevent the cutting of ice.

This year the water in the lake has been lower, but about a foot above the latake that supplies the people of the town with their drinking water. It is a favorite occupation to point out the poverty stricken condition of New York millionaires as shown by the tax returns. But the trouble is with the system rather than the men. No personal property tax has ever been devised that will work equably in cities. This fact is becoming recog-nized so that there is an increasing movement to replace the general property tax with other forms of tax-ation, the burden of which can be more equitably adjusted.—Kansas City
